

ASH WEDNESDAY

Lent Worship Service
Wednesday, February 14
6:30 p.m.

Traditionally, the goal of worship on Ash Wednesday is threefold: to meditate on life's brevity, our mortality, and our need of a Savior; to renew our commitment to walk daily with the Lord; and to express gratitude to God in worship that Christ has conquered death and sin.

Ashes have a long history in biblical and church traditions. Ashes symbolized frailty, sadness, mourning, death, and repentance. The marking of our body with the symbol of the cross in ashes proclaims we have victory over death through Christ our Lord. Come join us in this meaningful worship experience this Wednesday.
